And so I wait for glory
To shine its face upon me
But I'm out of luck and out of place
I'd sing 10,000 songs
Just to break free
And you...
You're all I need

Contain me
Like embers to the fire
Burn me up in you
Like light to blinded eyes

From the song I sing
To this life's meaning
We've wasted words but we failed to breath
It's all a lie, everything you see
And so I wait for glory
To shine it's face upon me
And you...
You're all I need
Contain me
Like embers to the fire
Burn me up in you
Like light to blinded eyes

Contain me
Like embers to the fire
Burn me up in you
Like light to blinded eyes
