Paint a portrait
With all your colors in mind
Leave the canvas
White dripping from side to side

Close your eyes
Dream for an hour or two
Conversation
Loses focus melting with you

Will you relieve me
What's the last place you've called home
Believe me
I'm a warrior but at night i'm so alone

I open my mouth
But words won't come out
I try to speak in my defense
But i'm defenseless

Will you relieve me
What's the last place you've called home
Believe me
I'm a warrior but at night i'm so alone

Diary of a soldier lost at war
What's the cause that we all fight for?

Heart felt questions I've failed to mention
Gave it all back to you again

Will you relieve me
What's the last place you've called home
Believe me
I'm a warrior but at night i'm so alone
