We've fallen so hard
Fallen to pieces
Desperate for anything
Anything alive
I cant let you go
Won't go down without fighting
These words I'm reciting
No not this time
God, give me a sign
Give me a reason
I promise this time

I'm falling, falling to you
I'm falling, falling to you

Get me closer
Wrapped up in glory
It's the robe from the story
The passing of time
Ground shaking beneath me
But I feel you reaching
Holding on tight
Always believing
Keeping me alive on the inside

I'm falling, falling to you
I'm falling, falling to you

Innocence cut to pieces
Faith shattered
Darkness falling aside
But I know
If you don't let this go
It'll tear you apart from the inside

I'm falling, falling to you
I'm falling, falling to you
I'm falling, falling to you
I'm falling, falling to you
