chorus

lucky you, you've got a woman to go home 2
I've got to find me myself a woman what i wouldnt do man lucky you you've got some kids to attend to
what I wouldnt do now

verse 1

Aint nothin funny sitting there making fun of me just because u've got ur kids and ur honey youve got money damn good 4 u mann ur life must be so happy now on the other hand im here trying to look like this ghetto one having a family would be so nice it would bring joy 2 me to find a lady who would bring a baby boy or a girl for me would mean the world

I've got to find me myself a woman

verse 2

when u reach home ur greeted wit hugs and kisses by your wife and your 3 loving kids just to see your dinner on the table aint got nothin 2 worry about still got a young one coming up in the cradle damn..man your life must be so stable as for me im a neighbor, disabled, im like a fable

sometimes when im passing i would see u and your family together laughin i would just stand there(stand there) and imagine(staring) and staring but right now, right now im feeling alone right now, i need someone 2 call my own right now, i feel as if i'll pick up the phone an call an ask the kids if there alright at home but oh
