Because I Love You, Girl
The Stylistics
(Hugo/Luigi/George David Weiss)

A rose in Harlem starts to bloom
The world is like a toy balloon
I hear a love song and I cry
And I know why

Because I love you, girl
Because I love you, girl
You know theres nothing in the world that I wouldnt do
Nothing in the world that I wouldnt do
For you because I love you

If you ask me for the moon
Of course Id show up the moon
No matter what you ask Ill try
And you know why

Because I love you, girl
Because I love you, girl
You know theres nothing in the world that I wouldnt do
Nothing in the world that I wouldnt do
For you because I love you

Because I love you, girl
Because I love you, girl
You know theres nothing in the world that I wouldnt do
Nothing in the world that I wouldnt do
For you because I love you Transcribed by: Char Star
