I've cheeked us into
Something dangerous
Still your too
Self glued into him
And it's your white lies
That i need to be in
What's that, I'm caught
He's death and you're distraught
He's seen me leave
He'll stop me breathing
My boy smile doesn't work so well
With him i find
He chases after me home, now
You're too self glued into him
And it's your white lies
That i need to be in
