"Freefall"

the chosen words were spoken the mystery's half-broken the seventh veil enfolds her

i lay myself beside her in sweet and sensuous silence
i lay myself beside her

in aerobatic spinaround
...around...
in wider circles
...atom...
...raindrop...
...sun...
in aerobatic turnaround
...down...
...down...
in
free
fall starglow glide

the gate remains wide open a whole life passes over i lost myself inside her
