Your anger beads me
Your impatiens it kills me
Your action spawned from your immaturity
I can't take this no more
I gave you everything I had
You can't take advantage of me no more
All the time i've spent mending my wounds
I could've spent loving you
No I can't let you deceive
You ripped my heart out and spit on my name
And I don't think I will ever change
But I'll forgive and forget this time
In your words I will put pass me again this time
I'm hold'n on hold'n no this time
I still feel you words
You wonder what i'm worth
Why don't you tap these things for all their worth?
But I won't play your game
I'm to strong to be ashamed
I think I've found out who's to blame
But I'll forgive and forget this time
In your words I will put pass me again this time
I'm hold'n on hold'n no this time
Who do you think you are?
Just what do you want from me?
I gave you everything.....I had
I've been hold'n on hold'n on for so long
I've lost my grip.....lost my....grip
But I'll forgive and forget this time
In your words I will put pass me again this time
I'm hold'n on hold'n no this time
No I wont forgive and I wont for get this time
In your words I will put pass me again this time
I've lost my grip, lost my grip this time
