Well all right, bye, bye
To this place that once held this heart of mine
I'm gonna cry you one last tear but I ain't cryin' no more
I know this big old world got somethin' better in store
For me, for me

You can keep this house that we built up together
I'll be better off, out in the weather
Let the rain wash me down
Let the wind come blow me out of town
I've been lyin' down by the river for a long, long time
Let the sun shine me up like a brand new dime

To this place that once held this heart of mine
I'm gonna cry you one last tear but I ain't cryin' no more
I know this big old world got somethin' better in store
For me, for me

Well, I've been reachin', reachin', leanin', leanin'
Jumpin', jumpin'
Workin' to win, workin' to win
Seven long years but I have no regrets

Baby unless, it's that there'll be no more days
Like the lovely days that we've seen, you and me
But I guess I must appear to be movin' mighty slow
But it's love that makes me linger so

To this place that once held this heart of mine
I'm gonna cry you one last tear but I ain't cryin' no more
I know this big old world got somethin' better in store
For me, for me, for me, for me, for me, okay you, okay
you

Well all right, bye, bye, well all right, bye, bye

Don't you wanna go

One more baby probably we can't get on home

Well all right, bye bye
All right baby, bye bye now
