I've been drivin this truckwith a broken heartcan't stop drivin'once I stop it might never stopengine roar downfrom Detroit, Michiganengine

roar and roar,won't let no silence inI need somebody, I need somebody, I need somebody

Coffee girl could be the one I needbut all she can see is breakfast

number one, two and threeeverybody, everybody seemslike a stranger to mebut nobody, nobody couldbe as strange as mewhen I need somebody, I need somebody, I need somebody

Well they don t haveto be somebody newdon't have to be a love so truecould even be somebody just like youI need somebody whoneeds

somebody too

I need somebody, I need somebody
