It was a typical summer
hot down by the waters edge.
We were lovers
akward, tripping on words and falling for each other.

We were desperate for something more then seventeen years of innocence wasn't enough to keep us from the edge
we had to jump off.

Nothing could stop us
Nothing in this world.
Yeah

You were ready to fly
I was ready to fall
anything was possible
there wasn't a cloud in the clear blue sky the world was low
we were up so high Looking down on the road not taking lost in the love that we were making.
And you asked me
If you ever crossed my mind
Hey Girl,
I go back there all the time

This cool rains unusual strange
for this time of year it's usually burning up the sidewalk but it makes good small talk It's so wonderful,
seeing you after all these years and i wonder what the chances were of meeting you in this coffee shop Girl the last time i looked into your eyes

* chorus x2 *

And you asked me if you ever crossed my mind hey girl I go back there all the time I go back there all the time I go back there all the ti
