Frozen in time vicious crime
Take away the misery inside of me
Dark shadows of destiny
Run rampant like a river of wounds through my mind
Solitude my relief
My belief in this life of seclusion
Signs of life bitter strife
Reality slowly fades into illusion

Why must I die
Trying to satisfy
Freewill my life is mine to live

Hidden thoughts inside of me
Wounds that will not heal
Take the power from me
As I see just what is real
Living by my standards
I decide just what is right
You won't take me down
For my belief till death I'll fight

I'm a victim of my fears
Wash the blood away with tears
Through the pain and anguish
I've battled through the years
I look into the mirror
Of death each growing day
In your eyes an outcast
Why don't you listen to what I say

Why must I die
Trying to satisfy
Freewill my life is mine to live
