

The Submarines

"Vomit Congregation"

Visit "Vomit Congregation" on MotoLyrics.com

Inflicted hatred into the veins of my emotions, of my Ways.

Upline the Savior of mankind, covered in beauty but Rotting inside.

How unwise it is to see a sanctuary become a jail.

Ousting truth from preaching mouths and riding down
this

Horrible trail.

Gossip, envy, malice, blindness, just the things you see
In this world.

But with every step they take, faith is ended, hope is Frail

Whatever happened to Love in a church?

Why can't you see what salvation is worth?

Whatever happened to Love in a church?

Why can't you see what salvation is worth?

Satan's ways come undone, endangerment of the soul

Still awaiting to have my say, still engulfed in burning

Envy.

Still engulfed in burning envy.

Victory, I see the writhing sea

Brings out the lies inside that fire will consume.

Fire will consume my entrails, bringing me a life of pain

Haven of perversion. Vomit Congregation.

Visit The Submarines page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.