Better days have been found in hell,
I am looking for answers to questions,
I can't seem to find them,
I try to turn to you but you are lying there,
Asleep in your bed,
I wonder how you can sleep,
After you just killed part of me.

Just because you didn't like me,
Just because you are lonely,
Doesn't mean you have to destroy me,
Doesn't mean you have to destroy the only thing,
That was meant for me.

I can't sleep I can't eat,
I am scared for you,
You say have no fear and you just mess up my hair,
I know I can't run, but I want to leave this place,
I know it won't happen but right now,
I never want to see your face.

Just because you didn't like him,
Just because you are lonely,
Doesn't mean you have to destroy him,
Doesn't mean you have to destroy the only thing,
That was meant for me.

Pull the trigger,
Kill a person,
Makes the killer a hero,
It doesn't matter we can make changes,
Learn to see me as someone else would,
Then we can stop all of these dangers.

Just because you don't like someone,
Just because you are lonely,
Doesn't mean you have to destroy them,
Doesn't mean you have to destroy the only thing, that was meant for me.
