You say its becasue weire boisterous

You hate us cause we got our dignity

We stand together proud and strong

This is a place where we belong

We got loyal friends we keep our heads held high,

Weill stick together you and I Donit need no guns or drugs on our streets just a place to go and the boots on our feet.

Never alone...

The city streets are where we roam.

Never alone...

This is Boston its our home.

Never alone...

The city streets are where we roam.

Never alone...

This is Boston its our home.

Young skinhead they call you hooligan

Just because you donit make any sense to them

But the blood that runs right down your wrist

Dont come from a knife, but the cuts on your fisti

Your torn up knuckles and faded blue jeans

Are the colors you wear and the life that youive seen

You tell the truth look people in the eye

Don't live your life in no baggy disguise.

Never alone...

The city streets are where we roam.

Never alone...

This is Boston it's our home.

Never alone...

The city streets are where we roam.

Never alone...

This is Boston it's our home.

Don't need no gang to watch my ass

Just loyal friendship and a pint of Bass

We'll sweat in the ring and bleed in the streets

But our will and spirit can not be beat

You can shoot and you can kick but together we'll stick

Through thick and thin not stick or stone

Can break the bond that has here grown

Arm and Arm We Fight As One.

Never alone...

The city streets are where we roam.

Never alone...

This is Boston it's our home.

Never alone...

The city streets are where we roam.

Never alone...

This is Boston its our home.
