Is it gonna be
Will I ever see your face again
I'm dying slow without you
Almost every night when I close my eyes
I dream of you, your memory haunts the shadows

Haunts my mind, haunts my life
Will I make through this...

I sit and stare at this empty chair
Wondering where you are out there
How I long for your loving stare
O I find you one day again

When I used to cry you would dry my eyes
I feel so lost lost in this world without you
Every night I would pray for another day to be with you
Just one more chance to say goodbye
One more night, one more kiss, it's your spirit that i miss

I sit and stare at this empty chair
Wondering where you are out there
How I long for your loving stare
O I find you one day again

Its alright I'll see you in heaven, it'll be alright it's alright
...Its alright I'll see you in heaven it'll be alright...

I sit and stare at this empty chair
Wondering where you are out there
How I long for your loving stare
O I find you one day again

Yes I find you one day again
One day again
