I think it's time that I went on a holiday
I think it's time that my mind should take a break
I take the things that my friends say I should take
I think it's time that I went on a holiday

I know that you will be the one
You'll leave me right into the sun
I'll run away, run away far from you
I'll run away, run away far from you

I think it's time that I went on a holiday
I listen to the people who try to fake
They all say that they need a holiday
I think it's time that we went on a holiday

I know that you will be the one
You'll leave me right into the sun
I'll run away, run away far from you
I'll run away, run away far from you
Yeah, yeah
