wake up early in the morning sun arise confound the theory of evolution in your eyes they don't want to tell you they'll try to sell you to dispel your fears listen here
we're all playing monkey see monkey do we forgot what it's coming to
heads up patricidal monday afternoon i've got a rope and a tire hanging in my room i'm not at my station it's a fine vacation happens every year
listen here
i've seen cannibals in the night they live like animals stalking each other just to have some peace of mind see them following the eyes of the blind it's all right later in the evening sun goes down

everyone's caroling while the zoo is burning down
