Will you be my lover?
Will you be the one?
Will you be like no other?
For how long?

Yes, I'll be your wild flower
Grown through the concrete
And born to the back beats of the stars

Yes, I am just a stupid guy
Crushed like a, a butterfly
Dead eye at the drive by in a car

And I flies on a windscreen
Like insects in glue
We could stick together
If you wanted to

Yes, I'll be your wild flower
Grown through the concrete streets
And born to the back beat of the stars

Yes, I am just a stupid guy
Crushed like a, a butterfly
Dead eye at the drive by in a car

Yeah, just a stupid guy
Crushed like a, a butterfly
Dead eye at the drive by in a car
