Tattooed from the camps that mark your existance on a planet = deranged from the minds of the Reds. Inferior race awaiting the = moment when you are dismissed from your service in life. Captive in = torment, the merciless slaughter of souls misfortuned at birth. = Taken from wombs before they are nurtured, subjected to torture = unknown. Where bodies once lay, the ground in now fertile to sprout = the tree of damnation. A sign of remembrance that brings forth the = hatred which haunts the deceivers of life. This deadly disease which = goes through one man, to speak upon one as inferior. Their heads = will hang low because in time they will acknowledge the human race = as the superior. Families incarcerated commit spousal murder to = avoid the sightly pain of their loved ones. Abducted while sane, now = insane, not by choice, It was forced by the crisis of murder. = Constant infanticide plagues loving mothers as their newborn is = placed in a bed of dead roses.
