Darkness falls covering the day
Ghoulish figures
move between the shadows
unexplained voices come from nowhere
Caught between here and there
A life once lost over and over.

[Solo: Hobbs / Marchais]

Disturbing images unfold Tortures figures
recreate a deed
Evil is the host this night Demonic sounds consume the darkness

Darkness falls covering the day
Ghoulish figures
move between the shadows
unexplained voices come from nowhere
A life once lost played over and over.

As they prey upon the living concede made flesh delivers to he transpondent unremorseful plea relinquish thy soul and transcend forth

Between here and now deliver unto darkness befall the pits of despair and rise from the shadows to reclaim an heir.
Sit upon my side to rule.
