Oh there is a house,
A wonderful lover,
A satisfied hole,
Hope isn't a word,
A sudden said brother,
And what do you care?

And i'll take the pictures,
If you stay in bed,
I'll run down the park,
If you put up your head.

Don't put up your borderline,
Don't put up your borderline.

Oh there is a house,
A wonderful lover,
And what do you care?

Four or five years ago,
I wouldn't believe it,
I wouldn't receive it,
And i'll take the stiches.

You put in my head,
I'll run down the ark,
If you put up your head.

Don't put up your borderline,
Don't put up your borderline,
Borderline,
Borderline.

It feels like i'm going to lose my mind,
It feels like i'm going to lose my mind.
