you can try to break my spirit but my core is way too strong your words ring harsh your sentiment unkind unbridled rage can't topple this acropolis bored kids kill dreams but not realities talk your smack but see my face on your girlfriend's wall i am your fury and all you scorn i'm double evil reborn jealousy turns nice boys into dirty little twits so pierce your face put on your uniform go out and preach misdirected negativity fuck you and your words and your whiny diatribe i make records you make fries so pass the ketchup please i am your fury and all you scorn i'm double eveil reborn
