You don't need no love, man
You don't need no bedpan
You don't need a heartened message to mess with your end

If you open up your heart
If you know what I mean
And you waited here so long Well, that's a way for you to get me

Live, share in the wings of the Lord and you'll be free
The Lord lights the way and you know that you'll soon see
Share in the wings of the Lord and you'll be free
The Lord lights the way with all the glory to see

You don't need no passport
You don't need no visa
You don't need a daisy chain or anything before you can see Jesus

If you open up your heart
You can 'see' it right there
But if it opens too wide Then you'll find your own hell

Live, share in the wings of the Lord and you'll be free
The Lord lights the way and you know that you'll soon
see
Share in the wings of the Lord and you'll be free
The Lord lights the way with all the glory to see

You don't need no church house
You don't need no temple
You don't need no rosary beads or books if you wanna go there

If you open up your heart
If you know what I mean
Then you'll soon long to find that out that we're all free

Oh we're on bible number fifty one said the general order
And a stronger piece of english is the only thing that's followed by the quota
The Lord lights the way with all the glory to see
But share in the wings of the Lord and you'll be free
