Everyone has choice
When to or not to raise their voice
It's you who decides
Which way you will turn
When feeling that your love is not returned
It's you who decides
No one around you will carry the flame for you
No one around you will love you today
And throw it all away tomorrow when you die
Another day for you to realize

Ohh...soon to die
As the place stands up on end
You've got me wondering how I lost your friendship
But I see it in your eyes
Though I'm beside you I can't carry the pain for you
And when you decide to get out of your blessing,
Well, I've got no guessing
How I will be
Will you make it up for you to reap in
Well only you and I can capture all that we have Been stuck in
It's you who decides
