(Tom Kent/Dimitri Schoenfeld/Amanda Wilson)

I know I hesitate 'cause it's time forever more, oh
And the lies I keep are too emotional, oh.
I'm trying again to tell you why, this time, there really is goodbye.
I can't give in again, give in again, I can't fight no more.

'Cause there's a life you will find, when you are right by
my side
And my words are justified, but it hurts sometimes.
It hurts sometimes, it hurts sometimes.

I know I hesitate on a time forever more, oh
And the lies I keep are too emotional.
I know it's hard to take when your world is closing in,
oh.
Let your feelings be, inspirational.
I won't run from you or walk away
But I know you're trying to make me stay.
I can't give in again, give in again, I can't fight no more.

'Cause there's a life you will find, when you are right by
my side
And my words are justified, but it hurts sometimes.
It hurts sometimes, it hurts sometimes, yeah.
'Cause there's a life you will find, when you are right by
my side
And my words are justified, but it hurts sometimes.
It hurts sometimes, it hurts sometimes.

I know I hesitate 'cause it's time forever more, oh.
