(S. Theard-K. Spencer)
I swore i'd never get involed
Said i'd never ever fall in love
Cause it hurt me once before...
Wouldn't hurt me anymore
Since the times have changed it's different now
Hypnotized by you and wondering how...
I fell into your arms...
I was captured by your charms
An Here I Go...
Falling in love again
Here I Go...
Falling in love again
Lost and scared as i can be
Can't help thinking of the mystery,
That i shared with my first love...
Like a pair of mismatched gloves
Now you've found your way into my world
Touched the woman deep inside the girl
Can you tell me if it's real...
Have forgotten how to feel
Here I Go...
Falling in love again
Here I Go...
Falling in love again
Here I Go, falling in love again...
The damage is already done
How can i ever turn my back on loving you...
Here I Go, giving my all again...
I'm ready to show what i feel
So if you will, take this love into your heart...
