"Just Let It Go"

Visit "Just Let It Go" on MotoLyrics.com

he was the one for me he made me feel alright now everything gone wrong we were so tight he ain't the one, so just move on its time you let it go how can i now forget him he's the only one

dont, dont wast your time there's a good thing waiting for you down the line
soon when you'll get over him, your light will trouly shine

there's a good thing waiting for you, dont you know
soon when you'll get over him, you'll find the sweetest friend, oh..

how can i let him go when he means so much to me you think im lying, you think its time i can't get him off my mind he ain't the one for you but its time to let him go i think your right, he needs to go he's not the one for me

friend, oh.. yeah-eah

when you'll find the one thatz meant for you then you'll realize that its just a fase your going trough everybody has a bas time

friend
(x3)

(--sing slowly)
