"Bad Time"

Trouble, well it always seems to get me down
I'm doubtful that things are ever gonna turn around
I gotta find a way to change my life

Never have I ever been lucky
My back is to the wall
And lately if it wasn't for real bad luck
I'd have no luck at all

I need a way to change some way to re-arrange it all

I'm havin' a bad time
I'm havin' a bad run
I'm havin' a bad time
I'm havin' a bad run

Runnin', but there's no where left to hide
And nothin' to do
Talkin', but there ain't that much left to say
I got the street corner blues

I need a way to change some way to re-arrange it all

I'm havin' a bad time
I'm havin' a bad run
I'm havin' a bad time
I'm havin' a bad run
I'm havin' a bad time
I'm havin' a bad run

Havin' a bad time
