Runnin' everywhere from the corner to the square
Goin' up and down around all day
Lookin' for booze, got nothin' to lose
Gonna show you what I wanna do

Slash with fingers, feel my eyes and rip them from my face
Got the whole plan think I'm goin' more insane
As I feel it comin' back again
Pressure point is building higher 'n' higher

Walls around me, don't seem to charm me
I've got to change their little minds
Lies they told me, were lies to keep me here
And turn around and you will find
Bars surround me, still I feel free
From all the madness locked outside of me

Walking down the hall
As I bumped into a wall, see white figures all right in tow
Lookin' for more, so they shut all the doors
And lock me in fore evermore
Slash your throat with broken glass

Get back where you belong
Never going home, so I carry on alone
No matter that they're insane
Pressure point is building higher 'n' higher

Walls around me, don't seem to charm me
I've got to change their little minds
Lies they told me, were lies to keep me here
And turn around and you will find
Bars surround me, still I feel free
From all the madness locked outside of me

Walls around me, don't seem to charm me
I've got to change their little minds
Lies they told me, were lies to keep me here
And turn around and you will find
Bars surround me, still I feel free

From all the madness locked outside of me

Since I've been here, I see they're really right
Lock the madness outside
Bars surround me, still I feel free
All around me is insane
