Heartbeat Away
BOB OLDREIVE

I saw you in the park but I didn't say hi
Wrapped up with your new friend
I just walked on by
I try to reach these arms into our yesterday
When you were just a heartbeat away

By mistake last night you rang my phone
You seemed so surprised to find me at home
You didn't say too much, there's not that much to say
As when you were a heartbeat away

chorus
Just a heartbeat to where our hearts would meet
If you would only try again
Take me back to when
I could feel your heart beat

If we could go tonight just you and me
Relive a few good times the way it used to be
I have this memory each and every day
When you were just a heartbeat away
You were just a heartbeat away
