A divorced lady arrives home from a bar
Guess, guess what she sees, sees there
There's a naked person in my flat
He's got a weird expression on his face

Oh, my God and Jesus as well
What are you doing here?
Are you hurting your chest?
Offending yourself?

Forcing yourself into pain and sorrow like there's no tomorrow
Should use the pain and sorrow
To fill you up with power
Life's both sweet and sour

He looks at me hopeless with tears in his eyes
Goes out of the window and up on the roof
Naked man, naked man, come down
I'll, I'll give you some strawberry cake

Don't act like there's no tomorrow
You should use the pain and the sorrow
To fill you up with power
Life's both sweet and sour

Life's both sweet and sour
Both sweet and sour
Both sweet and sour
Life's both sweet and sour

Don't act
Don't act
Don't act, act

Like there's no tomorrow
So you should use the pain and sorrow
To fill you up with power
Life's both sweet and sour

Don't act, don't act like there's no tomorrow
You should use the pain and sorrow

To fill you up with power
Life's both sweet and sour

Life's both sweet and sour
Life's both sweet and sour
Life's both sweet and sour
