Bouncing Off the Walls

I'm bouncing off the walls again woo oh

And I'm looking like a fool again woo oh

I threw away my reputation

One more song for the radio station

I'm bouncing off the walls again woo oh

And I'm looking like a fool again woo oh

Waking up on the bathroom floor

Pull myself back together just to fall once more

And my heart's beating out of my chest

And this town is still making me sick

And every penny from my last paycheck

I've blown it on you

I'm bouncing off the walls again woo oh

And I'm looking like a fool again woo oh

So go ahead and take a picture

And hang it up so you can tear me down

I don't care

Cuz I'm still here

And I've got nothing left to lose

With all the years I've wasted on you

Go, go

Mommy and daddy's got the best cocaine

Ritalin's never gonna feel the same

24 hours on an empty brain

I got my finger on the trigger and you're in my way

I'm bouncing off the walls again woo oh

And I'm looking like a fool again woo oh

I threw away my reputation

One more song for the radio station

I'm bouncing off the walls again woo oh

And I'm looking like a fool again woo oh

I'm bouncing off the walls again woo oh

And I'm looking like a fool again woo oh

I'm bouncing off the walls again woo oh
