15 minutes left to throw me together
For mister right now, not mister forever
Don?t know why I even try when I know how it ends
Lookin? like another maybe we could be friends
I?ve been leavin? it up to fate
It?s my life so it?s mine to make

I ain?t settlin? just gettin? by
I?ve had enough so so for the rest of my life
Tired of shootin? too low so raise the bar high.
"Just enough" ain't enough this time
I ain?t settlin? for anything less than everything.

With some good red wine and my brand new shoes
Gonna dance a blue streak around my livin? room
Take a chance on love and try how it feels
With my heart wide open now you know I will Find what it means to be the girl
Change her mind and change the world

I ain?t settlin? just gettin? by
I?ve had enough so so for the rest of my life
Tired of shootin? too low so raise the bar high.
"Just enough" ain't enough this time
I ain?t settlin? for anything less than everything.

I ain?t settlin? just gettin? by
I?ve had enough so so for the rest of my life
Tired of shootin? too low so raise the bar high.
"Just enough" ain't enough this time

I ain?t settlin? just gettin? by
I?ve had enough so so for the rest of my life
Tired of shootin? too low so raise the bar high.
I ain?t settlin? no, no, no, no, no, no?
So raise the bar high.
