"Breaking You"

they watched the leaves that fell outside watched their lives passing by and from a distance it seems so clear but it's all different when you're here and there were nights I was alone I knew we'd never make it through but it was never my intention

breaking you

it's like the waves that never wait to wash away - see you fade and though it's strange - what's to say when you can't leave - and you can't stay

and there were nights I was alone

for every choice I ever made a thousand choices thrown away for every thing I ever tried a million others set aside and every dream I'll ever dream and everyone I'll ever be and everything you mean to me it's just not enough everyone I'll ever know every place I'll ever go every feeling ever shown every wish this heart can hold every morning every night every touch and every smile every minute of this life it's not what I hoped for I'll always be wanting more
