"out of my hands
please understand
these are the leaves of december

useless and old
weak from the cold
gone like the moments so tender

I'll be myself
I'll be myself
please be yourself
please be yourself

darker the days
the smile leaves her face slowly I've ceased to remember snow turns to rain

don't turn away gone with the promise I made her

I'll be myself
I'll be myself
please be yourself
and please let me stay
