"you held my breath and I held yours you said you never felt so close then through the rainfall silence woke to tell me I was still alone say you're lost without me say we must not fight it tell me it was all inside my head if you could say it to my face that though it's really goodbye sometimes you feel you have no place sometimes you wish you could cry

say you won't believe the things I say

I held your heart and you held mine I never thought I'd let you down never thought I'd hear you say that you feel better this way

words won't come without you say they're not supposed to promise me you'll make them go away the things I say
