I don't know what you say
Every single holy day,
Never in my life I see
How can it be, what's it for me?

I know that you know that we know that you know
Every what's his name
I know that you know that we know that you know
What, how can it be?
Taking a tumble you know a tumble that you take a tumble
(Its not like this)
Cos im falling down the stairs,
Help me cos ive got no grip, oh help me please
(And I fall)

She left me, I cant see
Im blind
Help me im so strong
And then I lose my mind
I want to be there but you cannot see me, with I know what's in your head

I know that you know that we know that you know
Every what's his name
I know that you know that we know that you know
What, how can it be?
Taking a tumble you know a tumble that you take a
tumble
(Its not like this)
Cos im falling down the stairs, Help me cos ive got no grip
(And I fall)
