Lone before I was once another

And I guess I was better now after

Fill my heart with your love sweet love

And replace another apple in my mouth

It's such a long distance

And I don't wanna lose Control

Another aching blister on my soul

Another apple in my mouth I don't know what to do

(I don't know what to do)

Another bullet in my chest I wanna die for you

(I wanna die for you)

Fill me up fill me up until you go

Fill me up fill me up until you go

Another apple in my mouth

An opened door and I know for sure

That the people me People have spoken

Are you getting old it's a fact hold on

Because it's love and I guess it's the answer

It's such a long distance

And I don't wanna lose Control

Another aching blister on my soul

Another apple in my mouth I don't know what to do

(I don't know what to do)

Another bullet in my chest I wanna die for you

(I wanna die for you)

Fill me up fill me up until you go

Fill me up fill me up until you go

Another apple in my mouth
