From day one

I've wanted you

And now I feel so all alone

In the sun

I'm haunted too

And now I feel so all alone

Maybe we never succeeded

Blame me because I didn't see

That everything I ever needed

Was right in front of me

Is it hard to forget, forget that we ever met?

With your head in the sand, remember

From day one

I have wanted you

And now I feel so all alone

In the sun

And I'm haunted too

And now I feel so all alone

A rain falls and covers my silence

Empties the street from it's scum

Thunder rows out in violence

Oh brother what have I become
Take me out so I can meet her
Or someone else I don't care
Take me to where you prefer
Anywhere, out of here
There's still time, I won't fall
I got things to give, give it all
Just to be by her side I gave it
From day one
I have wanted you
And now I feel so all alone
In the sun
I have wanted you
And now I feel so all alone
In the sun
I have wanted you
And now I feel so all alone
In the sun
I have wanted you
And now I feel so all alone
