I never thought I'd change my browser again,
To play movies in a format I've never known.
To play movies in a format I've never known.

But straight away you dominate the market again,
You abused me in a way that I've never known.
You abused me in a way that I've never known.

So drag me, drop me, treat me like an object,
With a mouse click here, you will start to load.
Just drag me, drop me, treat me like an object,
With a mouse click here, you will start to load.

So here's the file that deals with the games on the web,
But it's compressing in a way that I've never known,
It's compressing in a way that I've never known.

So drag me, drop me, treat me like an object,
With a mouse click here, you will start to load.
Won't you drag me, drop me, treat me like an object,
With a mouse click here, you will start to load.

"Support... I can help you, but what do you say?
Oh, it's not free baby, you'll have to pay."
You just keep me registering, watching upgrade costs recurring,
God, don't you make more than our national debt?

'Cause I used to copy in a way that you've never known,
So then you accuse to the feds that you've never known,
Watching profits grow in a way that I've never known.

So drag me, drop me, treat me like an object,
With a mouse click here, you will start to load.
Just drag me, drop me, treat me like an object,
With a mouse click here, you will start to load.

Loading, baby, leave me, leave me alone...
Drag me, drop me, treat me like an object,
Make me, shake me, charge me for a late fee,

Update me.
