I am a million years old
A million years old oh yes it's true
I got the wrong Miracle
The wrong Miracle cuz all I wanted was you.

La - La - La...

I am a ship in a bottle
A monkeys tail, a blue lagoon
I got the Wrong Miracle
The wrong Miracle cuz all I wanted was you
No matter how happy I am
There is always something in the air
The sudden thoughts the smallest thing,
Remind me of what could 've been
Should I have walked the other way?

I have a lovely man, a quiet life oh yes I do.
I got the wrong Miracle
The wrong Miracle all I wanted was you the Wrong miracle cuz all I wanted was you
No matter how happy I am there is always
Something in the air the sudden thoughts
The smallest thing
Remind me of what could 've been,
If I have gone the other way
Would you be here with me today?
Here with me today...

La la La la La La...

Wrong miracle all I wanted was you the wrong miracle
All I wanted was you,
The wrong miracle but I guess it would do.
