I need some Valium, Zanax, Percaset, Darvaset, Vicodin, Calaudapin,
sleeping pills and Niquil.
I can't sleep yo and it's driving me mad it's like my eyelids are glued
to the top of my forehead.
I lie in bed with my eyes wide open but Duddy don't you worry you'll be sleeping in a moment

Then moments turn minutes and minutes turn to hours
then hours turn to long ass nights and cold showers.
It's four in the morning still wide awake let's see how many bong tokes Duddy B can take.
I already drank all the alcohol left in my house now
I sit here wide awake with a dry fucking mouth
And I just think of all the things on my mind and then I let um roll around about a million times Until it's got me you it grabs a hold of me baby
it's insomnia kids you know its driven me crazy.

[CHORUS]

Turn out the lights lie my head down
I lie my head down I close my eyes.
Now all I do girl is lie here I think I'll die here insomnia.

Push my face in the pillow to asphyxiate the sound

I'd cry my self to sleep but I'm too scared that I might drowned.
I'm calling for the sandman but I don't think he's in town
and all these sleepless nights have running thoughts have got me down.
I think I got a sudden case of narcolepsy maybe call up
Duddy B so we can smoke the best weed
And give me something nice so it can calm my chest peace and talk about these things that we really don't need.
Now as I lay in bed in my head I'm running circles stuck in the land of low light and infomercials.

Its insomnia kids you know its drivin' me crazy only thing that can save me is an overdose maybe.

[CHORUS]

Fallen fallen, trying to fall asleep.
Fallen fallen but my eyes are just too weak.
Fallen fallen, trying to fall asleep.
Fallen fallen but my eyes are just too weak.

[CHORUS]
