Well, I've been down this road before, down this road before.
It's just so dark and cold.
Well, I've been down this road before, down this road before.
It's just so long and alone.
I said she kissed me goodbye, kissed me goodbye,
then she turned and walked away, never coming back to me.
Well, now I'm asking her why, asking her why.
Baby, I just can't believe that you're up and leaving me.
'Cause now I'm alone, well now I'm the only one.
'Cause I'm alone, well now I'm the lonely one.

Now I'm the lonely one beneath this lonely sun.
I roam the streets at night searching for my only one.
Our love has gone so wrong, our hearts have broke in two.
I got one half with me, you took the other one with you.
And when the morning comes, I try to be stronger,
but the way she got me feeling, I can't take it any longer.
I'm the lonely one, yeah, I'm the only one and now I roam the streets at night beneath this frozen sun.

Well, I've been down this road before, down this road before.
It's just so dark and cold.
Well, I've been down this road before, down this road before.
It's just so long and alone.
I said she kissed me goodbye, kissed me goodbye,
then she turned and walked away, never coming back to me.
Well, now I'm asking her why, asking her why.
Baby, I just can't believe that you're up and leaving me.
'Cause now I'm alone, well now I'm the only one.
Now I'm alone, 'cause now I'm the lonely one.

You say our love needs autotune 'cause when we sing,

we're out of key.
Me without your love is like the birds without the bees, like the fish without the sea, it's like the snot without the sneeze.
I'm broken down and bare, I'm like a tree without the leaves.
I'm the moon and you're the sun and it's the light that we acquire.
Little lonely ember, find your way back to the fire.
We can burn together, put it back up in the sky.
We can yearn together, wet it down, let it die.
I'm the lonely one, I'm the lonely one.

I've been down this road before, down this road before.
It's just so dark and cold.
Well, I've been down this road before, down this road before.
It's just so long and alone.
I said she kissed me goodbye, kissed me goodbye,
then she turned and walked away, never coming back to me.
Well, now I'm asking her why, asking her why.
Baby, I just can't believe that you're up and leaving me.
'Cause now I'm alone, well now I'm the only one.
'Cause now I'm alone, well now I'm the lonely one.
