

Dirty Heads, The

"Taint"

Well it's the two baddest long haired mother fuckers right here
People call us dirt bags and you know that we just don't care
If you relate to this statement let me see your hands Cause people hate on these things that they don't understand
Supposedly yes we're all created equal Then why the fuck is there so many angry people like the fans and the industry
They both got their complaints
So now I'm stuck between an asshole and a dick just like a taint

A smile and a screw face a rock and a hard place a dream and reality
Which one would you chase?
So if you're listening the definition of
The Dirty Heads are here it's the beginning of

We are the last sons past generations
Left it to us to resonate
Reggae and hip hop dancehall to punk rock
DH is here to generate
We are the last sons past generations
Left it to us they resonate
If you've been hated felt underrated
This one's for you we dedicate

So cool and deadly, we rock it steady with these soul-moving medleys
So y'all get ready for this next shit eclectic calm and collective
We write songs that keep the whole world connected
And if you're ready for these brand new beginnings and
And if you're sick of all the same old shitty bands
You need something to brightens up the day-plan
Kids me and you got so much to say man

So much emotion (so much inspiration)

So much devotion (with no hesitation)

So if you're listening, the definition of
The Dirty Heads are here it's the beginning of

We are the last sons past generations
Left it to us to resonate
Reggae and hip hop we let the beat drop
DH is here to generate
We are the last sons past generations
Left it to us they resonate
If you've been hated felt underrated
This one's for you we dedicate
No time in my life for me to hesitate, we write these songs so we can resonate, DH is here to generate, dedicate these songs to all who can relate.

We are the last sons past generations
Left it to us to resonate
Reggae and hip hop dance hall to punk rock
DH is here to generate
We are the last sons past generations
Left it to us they resonate
If you've been hated felt underrated
This one's for you we dedicate
