I say what you wanna hear,
don't wanna cause no more tears,
take a walk in the park to ease your mind,
clear your mind of all the things you dislike.

Then in the end you fall back into the unknown,
No one even calls you. You're alone

I like you, it feels like theres no one else to turn to.
Theres no goin back.
I like you, it feels like theres no one else to turn to,
so open your eyes understand.

The truth hurts but you gotta know,
you gotta know you've got to learn to let go.
It feels like you've got enough,
But don't you ever wanna fall in love.

Then in the end you fall back into the unknown,
No one even calls you. You're alone

I like you, it feels like theres no one else to turn to.
Theres no goin back.
I like you, it feels like theres no one else to turn to,
so open your eyes understand.

You can go anywhere but you choose to stay behind,
and I know how it is, some things hard to decide,
I know you dont want to but its me you have to confide,
all you have to do is start by closing your eyes.

I say what you wanna hear,
don't wanna cause no more tears,
take a walk in the park to ease your mind,
clear your mind of all the things you dislike.

Then in the end you fall back into the unknown,
No one even calls you. You're alone

I like you, it feels like theres no one else to turn to.
Theres no goin back.

I like you, it feels like theres no one else to turn to,
so open your eyes understand.

I say what you wanna hear...
