"Set Me Up"

You seem to me as if your not willing to speak your mind,
and I know that you know I'm cruel but your not kind,
so you, you better shut your mouth because in the meantime,
I'm gonna have a real good time.

You don't know what you have done,
You set me up, you set me up.

When I look back at the time you came in to my life,
I could feel something wrong, something not quite right, but I never thought much about it, I just carried on,
but when I returned home you were gone.

You don't know what you have done,
You set me up, you set me up.

I'm taking out my revenge, Im taking it out tonight.
I'm taking out my revenge, its part of my appetite.
I'm taking out my revenge, you better run and hide.
I'm taking out my revenge, what you gonna do?
What you gonna do, save your soul?
