Wrap your arms around me
I'm fucking freezing, and I just saw napalm in your eyes
Rip off what's left of another day, another crash
I'm not good with goodbyes Moments like this don't just come and go, so soak it in
This is all I know
Hollow eyes have seen it all
They say it takes a lifetime for an empire to fall
I keep swallowing, choking on ashes hoping that you will help me breathe
But tomorrow's not coming
There's nothing left to believe
You look like Christmas to me, pale and glowing
The streetlight catching you through the window
And for a split second I forgot all my failures and the trash on the street below
I'm here with you
You're here with me
Let's try to forget
Flesh on flesh
