"All Systems Fail"

They're changing the rules, the conduction and flow is,
They're making us pay for the wars of the world.
But the laws of the world mean nothing,
and nothing can stop them from taking what just isn't theirs.

And this, regardless of what we say.

They're looking for payback through world domination.
Economy strangled by careless neglect.
And a bitter regret for the things that we've done
will be felt by us all in the years to come.

All systems overload!
Fail-safe systems breaking down!

Nowhere is safe cause they'll just take.
