I take a look around, I don't like what I see
A bunch of people who don't know shit about unity
I see right through your skin, you say, you see through mine
Then please explain to me why we fight all the time

I can't take it anymore, this is bothering me Got people killing each other, why does this have to be?
I wish I knew, I really wish I knew how people can see
There's no real difference between me and you

It's a bomb with a short fuse
And I know it seems like no use
The tension's building a reaction
This is a call to action

S.O.S. we need help
S.O.S. we need help
S.O.S. we need help
S.O.S. we need help

Man's inhumanity towards another man
It's man's insanity and ignorance again
And now the time has come to stop what's going on The hatred's building up, exploding like a bomb

It's a bomb with a short fuse
And I know it seems like no use
The tension's building a reaction
This is a call to action

S.O.S. we need help
S.O.S. we need help
S.O.S. we need help
S.O.S. we need help

The bomb is gotta stop
The bomb is gonna pop
The bomb is gotta stop
The bomb is gonna pop

The bomb is gotta stop
The bomb is gonna pop
The bomb is gotta stop
The bomb is gonna pop

It's a bomb, it's a bomb

It's a bomb with a short fuse
And I know it seems like no use
The tension's building a reaction
This is a call to action

S.O.S. we need help
S.O.S. we need help
S.O.S. we need help
S.O.S. we need help

Drop, drop, drop, drop
